

Women in Aviation Bluegrass Chapter, in collaboration with Louisville AWAM (Association for Women in Aviation Maintenance), is excited to announce a $1,000 Girls in Aviation Day Maintenance/Engineering scholarship. The Scholarship is open to women 15 years of age or older who are interested in obtaining a degree in Aeronautical/Aerospace Engineering, Aviation Maintenance Technology or an A&P through an accredited aviation technician program. This scholarship will be awarded at the Bluegrass Chapter Girls in Aviation Day event at Bowman Field on September 26, 2026. The application deadline is midnight on September 5th. Applications may be submitted electronically to:

bluegrasschapter@gmail.com

Scholarship Application Requirements:

1. Cover page or resume with the following information: name, address, school/work address, home phone/cell phone, email, school information including GPA.
2. One, one-page recommendation letter (Not from a family member)
3. 500-1,000 word essay addressing the following:
 - Your aviation history and goals
 - Who or what inspired your interest in aviation
 - Educational scholarships, honors and awards
 - Describe your most meaningful achievements
 - Describe your community/school involvement
4. Copies of all aviation and medical certificates (if applicable)